

86 Fattori 2010 Runcaris (Soave Classico); $15. From the local Italian word for “to work the soil,” Runcaris represents an easy, fresh expression of Soave Classico with lingering aromas of citrus, yellow rose, honey, jasmine and dried herbs. Imported by T. Edward Wines Ltd. —M.L.

86 Fattori 2009 Runcaris (Soave Classico); $15. This edition of Soave Classico Runcaris offers simple aromas of pear, Golden Delicious apple, stone fruit and melon. There’s a drying point of minerality at the back and crisp acidity to boot. Imported by T. Edward Wines Ltd. —M.L.

SOAVE

91 Fattori 2010 Motto Piane (Soave); $18. Motto Piane delivers a huge and sophisticated style (thanks to late-harvest fruit) with enormous intensity and thick glycerin streaks visible down the side of the glass. Aromas here include crushed white peppercorn, dried sage, almond paste and mature fruit. Imported by The Wine Company. —M.L.

89 Fattori 2008 Motto Piane (Soave); $18. This aged expression of Motto Piane Soave drinks with such intensity, thickness and golden brilliance, you’d almost mistake it for a dessert wine. Aromas include candied fruit and sweet pineapple. Imported by The Wine Company. —M.L.

88 Fattori 2010 Danieli (Soave); $17. Soave Danieli offers drying mineral notes of talc and brimstone for a linear, straightforward style. Delicate background notes of white flower and stone fruit complete this refreshing white wine. Imported by J & J Importers. —M.L.